INTO GALICIA

Berlin Claims Austro-Hungarians Scored a Victory

CZAR MASSING MORE TROOPS

Movement Indicates Operations Will Soon Be Resumed in Galicia on Big Scale.

Berlin, Dec. 30.-The Russians have met with defeat in their attempt to begin an offensive movement in Galicia. The Austro-Hungarian forces have also beaten back a Russian advance into Bukowina. The Russians are reported to have lost headily in killed and wounded and 900 prisners were taken.

The massing of Russian troops on the frontier of southeastern Galicia ends to the belief that the Cyar is contemplating a drive into Bukowina and possibly into Galicia.

London, Dec. 30.-The weight of the Russian offensive against the Austrians seems to have attained some results. After stating that the Russian attacks were repelled, the Vienna official report announces that east of Purkanov Austrian "reconnoi tering parties retired on our chief division before superior Russian forces."

On the Bessarabian border of Galic ia and Bukowina, near the Rumanian frontiers, the fleavy bombardment and infantry assaults "have not yet succeeded in breaking through the lines," according to the Czernowitz correspondent of the Berlin Tageblaft. He adds: "The Russians main tained a gunfire for 25 hours that was audible in Czernowitz," some 25 miles

London, Dec. 29-Dispatches from both east and west express the belief WANTED-Experienced young tady as that the winter weather is likely to grove the most severe obstacle to war perations on the principal fronts dur ing the next few weeks.

The most dreaded period of winter is from the end of December to the end of January," was a French general's reply a year ago to the demands for a great offensive. The same remark would probably apply equally dds year.

Reuter's correspondent at western headquarters, after remarking that the British staff is confident the Allies are now so strong in men and munitions they can break through the German lines whenever the right time comes, declares the weather is the chief reason for postponing the big movement, and adds:

"Such a movement peeds careful planning and extreme caution. Rolling-up tactics always involve the pos sibility of counter attacks which may end in rolling up the aggressor. With the face of the country in a porous condition, it is impossible to effect the essential quick movements of ar tillery, without which any big offens we is foredoomed to fail.

"The alifed troops would probably have little trouble in occupying the greater part of the German from trenches forthwith, because the enemy holds these lightly. But then with the ranges registered to a nicety from myriads or artillery and machine guns such a step would be sheer suicide until the opportunity is

Despite the weather, the duel in the Vosges mountains, in the western zone continues and may eventually prove to be one of the big operations of the war. The gains in either direc tion thus far have been small, but the French claim progress in their effort to establish themselves on the cres of the foothills, which here dominate the plain.

War Upon Pain!

Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin-no rubbing required-it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful. Mervin H. Solster, Berkeley, Cal. writes: "Last Saturday, after tramp ing around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost disappeared, four hours after the second application I was as good as new.

Britain Also Worried by Reports that | Fully 50 People, Most of Them Wound Von Mackenson Is on His Way to Egypt.

London, Dec. 29-Lloyds announced goes passing through the Suez canal will bereafter be treble the present

The news has created a most profound impression. Although the war for the state department regarding office will have nothing to say on the subject, it means beyond doubt that the gravest apprehensions are felt and that Turco-German forces must be near the canal. In many quarters tonight the opinion is prevalent that the German invasion or Egypt is to be put into exeention at a much earlier date than had been expected by the most pesdimistic of British observers.

The increase in insuarnce rates has also in the minds of the keenest observers, determined the destination of the 40,000 Indian soldfors with drawn front the front in France last week and transported to another field of operations. It is pointed out that if conditions at the canal are sufficiently alarming to have induced the insurance companies to make such ed, but only eight got away safely. an enormous increase, there can be no had to jump from the deck of the Indian contingent.

It is suggested by some that th war office has adopted this method of closing the canal, not wishing to issue direct orders stopping truffic. The genral feeling of apprehension has not been diminished by the re ports that Field Marshal von Mackenen is on his way to Aleppo to take ommand of the armies destined to last reports were stationed at Alenna under direct command of General on der Goltz, the former German commander of the Dardanelles, and numbered not less than 300,000 men.

It would appear from today's devel opments this force must already have started for the Egyptian border if i has not already been transported to that point. The most recent advices respecting the condition of the rail road from Aleppo to the Egyptian border say it is almost entirely double tracked and that the journey can be made in something less than three days. The canal is eighty miles west of the frontier.

Mrs Greil declined to state specifically that any of the lifeboats had been shelled, but she did say a consider able number of the survivors were wounded before being taken off the Ancona. No warning was given to the Ancona, Dr. Grell added, the pres ence of the submarine first being enown when a shot crashed into the forward part of the ship.

Charges Canada With Neglect of

Discharged Men. Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 26.-When I was found that many of the western war heroes returning wounded, maimed and ill from the front were arriv ing in Winnipeg these first winter days without funds, without over coats or underwear and otherwise ne glocted an investigation was made as to the character of the treatment accorded these men who have made such sacrifices for the empire.

It was found that they have been subject to shameful neglect, discomfort and inconvenience practically from the time they left the large British hospitals, where they were so roy ally treated and came under the jur isdiction of the Canadian authorities This scandalous state of affairs the men ascribe to carelessness, thought lessness, lack of proper supervision and mismanagement.

On leaving the comfort of the hos pitals the sick and wounded men are or three blankets and obliged to sleep on a bare floor for a month before be ing sent home.

"On leaving England to come home the men are not served out with warm underwear, socks and other clothing with which to endure the ocean voyage in winter weather.' says the Free Press. "In fact, they are given nothing at all. The small equipment of clothes they do have was given them when they left the hospital, usually from four to six months before leaving for home, and t is usually scanty at that.

"The equipment, for instance, that Private Hart received five months be fore he sailed consisted of one pair of khaki pants, one tunic, one overcoat we pairs of drawers, one pair of boots, two light overshirts, one can and one pair of socks. At no time pefore arriving in Winnipeg are the nen given a change of socks or un derwear."
